INTRODUCTION

SAFA Conference will be held on the 29 - 30 January 2016 at Pearl Continental Hotel, Lahore. The conference is hosted by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Pakistan at Lahore.

Lahore; a historical city is the cultural heart of Pakistan. It is a hub for traditional food and a panorama of the great Mughal Empire and architecture.

Lahore is located in the northeastern edge of Pakistani Punjab. It is the capital of the green Punjab and the second largest city of Pakistan after Karachi. It is located near the Ravi River, close to the Pakistan-India border. Lahore is also known to be a Mughal garden due to its rich Mughal heritage.

Life at Lahore is full of entertainment, business and cultural activities with a friendly, relaxed and homely atmosphere. An attraction for all tourists, the metropolis offers some great sites to see enjoy and reminisce forever.

Lahore is surrounded by the Ravi River and covered by 12 gates. The grand Lahore Fort; the magnificent Badshahi Mosque; the historic Minar-e-Pakistan; the beautiful Shalimar Gardens; the magnanimous Shrine of Data Gunj Bakhsh; the rest place of the poet of East, Dr. Mohammad Allama Iqbal; the Seraye Jehangiri; the famous Mall Road; the beautiful Wazir Khan mosque; the throbbing Lakshmi Chowk and Food Streets known for traditional food are some of the renowned places. Shopping at Anarkali Bazaar and Liberty Market never can be missed.

Join us in the conference and visit the multi-faceted city of LAHORE.

ACCOMPANYING PERSONS' PROGRAMME

FRIDAY 29 JANUARY, 2016

14:00 – 18:30

City Tour

A tour to world renowned Badshahi Mosque built by the great Mughal Emperor Aurangzeb Alamgir. This mosque is built with red stone and its construction is very unique. It remained the largest mosque in the world for more than 300 years. There is a small museum inside the main entrance, on first floor of eastern corridor, established by Government of Pakistan. It contains relics of Prophet Muhammad SAW, his son-in-law Hazrat Ali RA & daughter Hazrat Fatima RA.

Lahore Fort (Shahi Qila) is situated in front of Badshahi Mosque. It is a huge fort bounding a lot of beauty. A great ancient work of architecture. You can see several royal palaces, gardens, fountains, baths, retiring rooms of Mughal period. There is a museum inside the fort. Without visiting Lahore Fort your visit to Lahore is incomplete.

The Minar-e-Pakistan is a tall concrete unique minaret in Iqbal Park in Lahore. Its height is about 60 meters. It is officially recognized as the National Monument of Pakistan. This is the site where in 1940, seven years before the formation of Pakistan, the Muslim League passed the Lahore Resolution, now known as The Pakistan Resolution, in which the need for a separate homeland for the Muslims in India was originally recognized.

SATURDAY 30 JANUARY, 2016

09:30 – 16:00

Shopping Tour

A tour to Anarkali, the oldest bazaar of South Asia, named after legendary girl "Anarkali" who was buried alive in 1599 by the Mughal Emperor Akbar for falling in love with Prince Jahangir.

The bazaar is in front of Lahore Museum and on the side of Punjab University Old Campus. Spanning from Mall Road on one side to the "Lohari" Gate of the ancient walled city of Lahore at the other end, one can find a number of sub markets. It is a famous shopping area where prices are reasonable and bargaining is must.

Liberty Market is one of the most popular markets in Lahore located on besides Main Boulevard Gulberg. The liberty market is an all-time favorite place for shopping lovers.
